GRP Wealth Strategies Group Rings In The New Year With A Lively Social

January's After Hours Business Social was hosted by GRP Wealth Strategies Group at their Wikiup Business Park office. Over 90 chamber members and guests enjoyed the New Year's themed social with party poppers, festive hats and noisemakers along with plenty of drinks and food provided by the GRP staff. During the networking and socializing part of the evening GRP partner and chamber board member Brad Pighin led everyone in a countdown to celebrate the New Year and to begin the evening's program.

*Brad Pighin, Bev Graham and Rich
Rebello of GRP Wealth Strategies
Group*

Chamber ambassador Jerry Hankins from Hankins Travel served as Master of Ceremonies and welcomed everyone. Brad Pighin introduced GRP partners Bev Graham and Rich Rebello. Brad, Bev and Rich talked about how GRP Wealth Strategies Group can assist anyone with their retirement needs through insurance and annuity products along with tax management, investment management, and estate conservation.

Brad told everyone that every person in the room has different needs and desires for their retirement and that GRP Wealth Management can tailor a plan based on the individual needs of each of their clients. Bev and Rich said working with a skilled professional at GRP can get you on course for your financial retirement goals while educating you on the basic concepts of personal fiscal management.

A new member plaque was presented to Dorothea Logan of Logan Investigations. Dorothea told everyone that she was previously a chamber member and was very happy to return to our chamber. She talked about Logan Investigations and how she can assist anyone with background inquiries, criminal and civil investigations, and personal injury and worker's compensation cases. With previous law enforcement experience she is well suited in assisting anyone with their investigative needs. Also receiving a new membership plaque was Linda Fisher from Consciously Healthy who is a registered nurse. Consciously Healthy offers designer products to address your inner most health desires, to look and feel youthful, to keep your body clean, powerful and healthy, and to be well-nourished and rejuvenated for peak performance. Linda says that she has benefited from her knowledge and products offerings herself and has shed weight and feels great. She can do the same thing for you!

Making a quick introduction and saying hello at the social was Healdsburg Councilmember Mike McGuire who is a candidate in the upcoming election for 4th District County Supervisor.

The business drawn for the $220.00 Pot of Gold was Postal Plus. Neither Jacquie Bogue nor Carolyn Findley were able to attend the social which means $20.00 will be added to the Pot of Gold drawing at the February 11th social hosted by Advance Tech Collision which now makes the pot a very affluent $240.00!

Our 50/50 raffle with $100.00 was won by our own chamber office volunteer, Vice President of Community Services and board member Pat Dearmin. Congratulations Pat! Pat Morelli from Wikiup Properties who won the 2 minute business showcase at the December social hosted by Molsberry's Market and Exchange Bank told everyone about Wikiup Properties. She said Wikiup Properties specializes in commercial property development and property management in the Mark West area. They are also the leasing and sales agent for the Wikiup Professional Business Park.

Prizes for our business card drawing were donated by Anytime Fitness, Sonoma County Airport Express, GRP Wealth Management Group and Landscape Artist Heather McConnell. Winners drawn included Daryl Anderson from Wikiup Properties, Anthony Gerald from Sonoma County Airport Express, Aggie Maggio from Coldwell Banker, Jeanne Haddorff from Healthy Are We, Marc Durand from Naturalight, Elaine Holtz from Pre-Paid Legal Services, David Israel from HR to Go, Tom Nunes from TD & Associates, Kenneth Norton from Pre-Paid Legal Services, Katherine Phillips from Key Properties and Liz Corell from Go Small Biz. The two minute showcase for next month's social at Advanced Tech Collision was won by Fernande Marie Bencze from California Reverse Mortgage.

Congratulations to our winners and thank you to Brad, Bev and Rich from GRP Wealth Management Group for helping us celebrate the beginning of 2010!

THE AMBASSADORS COMMITTEE

The definition of Ambassador is a messenger or diplomat. This definition very accurately describes the job of the Ambassadors for the Mark West Area Chamber of Commerce. Many of the programs at the Chamber are overseen by our dedicated and volunteer Ambassadors, currently about 12 members strong.

The ambassadors meet at the Chamber office the 2nd Thursday of every month from 3:30 PM until 5:00 PM to go over details for that evening's upcoming social, discuss next month's social, plan ribbon cuttings and other upcoming events. They provide check-in assistance at gatherings, recruit new business members, assist in retaining current business members, oversee after hours socials and ribbon cuttings. They are often liaisons between businesses and the chamber as they are the "go-to" people for event assistance and answer questions when they arise from new and prospective members.

If you are interested in becoming an Ambassador for our chamber, attend one of the monthly meetings, or call Head Ambassador Tony Geraldi at (707) 837-8700.

BUSINESS TO BUSINESS

BUSINESS TIPS NETWORKING TIPS

This is a monthly column dedicated to supporting all of us in increasing our networking skills.

Why is that important? Recognize that, as we increase our networking skills, we increase our business opportunities, which leads to increased revenues.

Tip #1 – Business Cards are important. We need to give them out as well as collect them. One of the Chamber’s best opportunities to do this is at our mixers. It is important that you attend.

Suggestions: Take five business cards in your pocket with a rubber band around them. Greet your friends but do not mingle until you have given these cards out to five people you do not normally talk to and remember to get their card in return. Now you have five new contacts and new information about their business. Remember: Make notes on the cards and follow up when appropriate. After that is done, have fun socializing with your friends.

Some of those you talk with may not utilize your services or products but that person may know some one who can. You never know where that referral will come from but it will not happen if people do not know about you and what you have to offer.

If you have a tip you would like to share, send it to elaineholtz@sbcglobal.net and we will credit you and your business for the tip. Always remember networking is fun, it is a way to meet new people and increase your visibility as well as your bottom line. We all like that.
