ANNUAL DINNER AT VINTNERS INN ON JULY 10, 6 PM

Chamber members and their guests are in for a treat at this year's Annual Installation Dinner on July 10th. New Member Vintners Inn will be our host for the evening, and they are providing a wonderful meal, hand-selected wines and a beautiful setting for our celebration. Starting with hors d'oeuvres under the tent, there will be a sit down dinner with wine at your table.

Our guest speaker will be Audrey Stevens, Director of the VA Medical Center, which will soon be opening a facility in North Sonoma County near the Airport. We will also hear from California's Junior Miss 2009, Lauren Xie, who hails from Sonoma County and is an accomplished concert pianist. Tickets are $40 per person - $75 per couple. WELCOME TO "NEW" STAFF AT THE CHAMBER OFFICE!

Jennifer Neylon

We would like to introduce Jennifer Neylon, in the newly created role of (interim) Operations Manager. As the Chamber continues to grow, and has expanded into a full-fledged Visitors Center, the skills needed in the office have changed to support this growth and expansion. Jennifer brings these skills, and more. She currently holds a part-time position with Lescure Engineers, Inc., and will be sharing her expertise with the Chamber staff and volunteers. She also helped the Mark West Community Services Committee organize and publicize their work in our area, so she is not "new" to many of us.

New Chamber Volunteer Marlene Hudson, who comes to us with 30 years of business experience specializing in Human Resources & office management. Welcome Jennifer & Marlene!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

July first starts our Chamber's fiscal year and the beginning of a new Chamber Administration. I will take over as President and we will have an entire new office staff, so please bear with us during this transition period. Bringing in an entire new office staff was not planned, however, Pat Morelli has decided to resign after 22 years as Office Manager, as have her volunteer office assistants.

In order for the Chamber office to be properly staffed and continue to run in a professional manner, the assistance of several volunteers has been enlisted. You will meet Marlene Hudson, who comes to us with 30 years of business experience, specializing in Human Resources and office management. Also coming on board on a part-time basis is Jennifer Neylon as interim Operations Manager, Jennifer is on contract to the Chamber from Lescure Engineers, Inc.

I will also be spending more time in the office during this transition period. I feel it will be helpful for me to be more knowledgeable with all the office procedures. The Chamber Office and Visitors Center is open Monday thru Friday from 10am to 4pm. With the Board of Director's approval, these hours will eventually be expanded to include weekends and evenings.

We have plans to change the look of our Visitors Center, including upgrades of materials, brochure holders, etc. I've visited several other Chamber & Visitors Center offices in the past few months and have gotten many ideas to make and effect these changes. Our inventory of items of interest will also be expanded. Further, there will be a marketing plan to give our Visitors Center a better profile in the community.

Membership growth is also a high priority on our agenda. We already have an incentive program in place to help achieve this program. This also coincides with membership retention, which is vital to the health of our Chamber.

Our Chamber is currently enjoying a wonderful, positive, reputation in the community and over a wide area. Many thanks go to our active Ambassador's Program headed by Tony Gerald of the Sonoma County Airport Express and many members who serve on that committee. We will all be continuing in this effort. They are not only dedicated, hard workers, but a fun group, too. If you are not already involved, give us a call. We can always use the extra help.

Community involvement projects are being considered, especially with the local schools. We will also continue to support the Community Services District formation. Let me hear from any of you who may have ideas and/or suggestions.

We are fortunate to have many professional and supportive dedicated members in our Chamber to help us implement all the foregoing. Too many to name at this time, but they know who they are and I want them all to know I appreciate all their past efforts. Hopefully, we will be gathering others who are interested in our goals. Remember, please, your individual support to our Chamber is also for the betterment of our community. Thank you all.

Respectfully, Walt Smith, President

JUNE SOCIAL
CHANCELLOR

Chancellor Place of Windsor Hosts A Most Enjoyable Garden Setting Social

Our after-hours business social for June was hosted by Chancellor Place of Windsor in their gorgeous rose patio garden. The start of summer provided great weather for our first social of the year held entirely outdoors. Along with the terrific weather, delicious appetizers and beverages contributed to the social being a very pleasant gathering.

Chamber President Elect Walt Smith from Just Transportation served as Master of Ceremonies for the evening and introduced General Manager Scott Carlson and his staff of Chancellor Place of Windsor to the guests in attendance. Scott gave a history of the facility and told everyone that Chancellor Place of Windsor has been in business for 13 years and caters to the active lifestyle of 73 senior residents. Staff members Sarah Filippo and Director of Marketing Sharon Gorelczenko explained how a typical daily routine for residents would often consist of a variety of options, including special events and parties, and excursions for shopping and sightseeing. Lee Hamilton is Director of First Impressions! Chamber guests and members were treated to an informative & impressive tour of the property.

A new member plaque was presented to Larysa Tanya Shmorhay, Educational Consultant with Resilient Education. Larysa told everyone that Resilient Education is in the business of providing teaching, tutoring and coaching experience for students and professionals in Math, English, and Leadership. Larysa was very impressed with the membership plaque presented to her and conveyed how much she is looking forward to being a chamber member.

Chamber Ambassador Kathleen Palmer from Sonoma Connection reminded everyone of many upcoming chamber activities, including the annual dinner on July 10th, as well as future ribbon cuttings and socials. Our 50/50 raffle of $70.00 was won by Laura Buhner from Exchange Bank. Congratulations Laura!

The business drawn from the Pot of Gold was Integrated Medical Clinic. Neither Ellen Barnett nor any member of her staff were able to attend the social. $20.00 will now be added to the Pot Of Gold drawing at the July 9th social hosted by Goodwill Industries/Job Link, which brings the new total amount to $100.00!

In addition to a complete basket of fun and interesting items donated by Chancellor Place of Windsor, other prizes for our business card drawing were donated by Exfuz distributor Lace Rosalia Moore, Sonoma County Airport Express and Mary Kay representative Sarah Filippo (also representing Chancellor Place of Windsor). Winners drawn were Walt Smith from Just Transportation, Roger Olson from the Pacific Coast Air Museum, Don Wilson from Wilson Painting, and Michael Flitner from Keegan & Coppin Company, Inc.

Congratulations to our winners and thank you to our donating businesses, and a big thank you to the staff at Chancellor Place of Windsor for their gracious hospitality.

RIBBON CUTTING: BUNGALOW COFFEE & TEA

The Mark West Area Chamber of Commerce and Visitors Center welcomes Bungalow Coffee and Tea with a ribbon cutting ceremony. New owners Eric and Shawna Rundstom are proud to say -- at Bungalow Coffee and Tea, they offer a wide variety of tea service products, mugs, and coffee ... yes, coffee! They prepare their espresso drinks using the award winning Eco Cafe Coffee. They grind and brew a house blend formulated to taste, full bodied and sweet. They also offer a selection of the worlds finest loose leaf teas from renowned growing regions around the world. Their teas are offered at many local fine dining restaurants around the county.

For Shawna and Eric, this coffee shop not only starts a new chapter in their lives, but also brings everything full circle. Shawna's mother, the late Judy Lampe, may be remembered by many in Sonoma County for a local Christian Concert/Coffee house she ran in Santa Rosa from 1999-2003 called Paradise Found. It served as a shelter and place for thousands of homeless kids to receive a hot meal. Judy dedicated her life to making sure homeless people received proper care, shelter and love, helping to reshape the lives of thousands of disadvantaged Sonoma County residents.

Although Bungalow Coffee and Tea is different from her mother's mission, Shawna is following in her mother's footsteps by working four nights a week at Social Advocates for Youth Coffee House Teen Shelter, which offers a safe haven shelter for runaway teens. Bungalow Coffee and Tea is located at 540 Larkfield Center in Santa Rosa, CA 95403. See them on the web at www.bungalowcoffeeandtea.com or phone (707) 546-8223.

RIBBON CUTTING: MOLSBERRY MARKETS and EXCHANGE BANK

The Mark West Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Center congratulates our corporate sponsors Molsberry Market and Exchange Bank in the Larkfield Shopping Center. Molsberry's started the week long festivities with a ribbon cutting ceremony celebrating their 50th birthday. Bob, the patriarch of the Molsberry family, reminisced about when he would unload the grocery truck in the morning then go quail hunting across the street in the afternoon.

Before you know it, the doors will swing open to the 20th Annual Wine Country Harvest Fair & Business Showcase 2009. The event is a little over three months away and my vision is that the room will be filled with wonderful people talking and sharing all their services and products. For those already committed to participate let's explore some questions and ideas while preparing to get ready.

To begin with, what is your motivation for participating? Are you trying to extend your relationship with existing customers? Introducing a new product? Positioning your company within the market? Generating qualified leads for new sales? Countering a competitor's claim?

What is the message you want to convey? In asking this question it will help you in decide about displays and giveaways.

What do you want to get out of the show? Do you want to generate leads, sell your product/service, or create/improve/ build upon your company image?

Which staff will you be sending? Remember whomever you select is representing you and your company. Start thinking about what people will wear i.e. special shirts or hats. How about brainstorming on how to greet attendees and collect business cards or contact information.

What do you need to bring? Remember to review your checklist.

For those who are still thinking about participating, if finances are an issue, the Chamber is willing to take partial payments or perhaps you can share a booth with another member. Most importantly in these economic times it is important we get out there and network and what better place to do that than at the Harvest Faire & Business Showcase 2009 taking place on Thursday, October 15, 2009, 4:00pm – 8:00pm, Wells Fargo Center for the Arts, 50 Mark West Springs Road, Santa Rosa.

In my mind, things are getting somewhat impersonal and events like this one are an opportunity to get close and personal (I like that). Looking forward to seeing everyone and having lots of fun.

Eight northern Sonoma County Chambers networked at our first combined Chamberee Networking Event at the Pacific Coast Air Museum! Attendees learned more about our "sister" chambers - and their members!

We would like to thank our generous sponsors: Jennifer L. Wall, Barefoot Winemaker, who provided us with three cases of Barefoot Wine & Bubbly for visitors to our booth, poured by a SOLE Patrol Barefoot; Brian Molsberry of Molsberry Markets for providing the delicious wraps at a great price, and donated a fruit platter to our booth! And, a special thank you to DJ Eric Berg of Dance the Night Away for providing a great sound for the Chamberee!
